Robert Collier Family Bible

Originally posted August 4, 2019

In the past year, CHF has had the opportunity to examine several Collier Family Bibles, the oldest of which belonged to Robert Collier (see May 3, 2015 post Robert Collier, Son of Vines and Elizabeth Collier). Robert was born in Virginia in 1783 and died in Upson County, Georgia in 1850, so the Bible is vintage early 1800s.

NEW-YOR

PUBLISHED AND SOLD BY

YENILE BOOK AND STATIONAR

THE PRINCIPAL BOOKSELLERS

1828.

The Bible is massive with plain front and back covers.

Inside the front cover is a note that "Hambleton was folded 15th of August - 1838". Hambleton was obviously a horse (foal) and his birth was considered important.

Hambleton was folded
15th of August 1838 -

Hambleton was folded
15th of August 1838 -

The family history portion is well-preserved and mostly very legible. Based on known handwriting characteristics, the entries in green ink at the end of the "Deaths" section, were added by Jena Cuthbert Collier. The entry of the death of Robert Collier was written by the same person who made most of the entries in the Robert Marshall Collier Family Bible (most likely Robert Marshall himself). The Robert Marshall Bible will be covered in a later post. Martha Marshall Booker, the wife of Robert Collier, signed her name with an "X" (see deed in June 6, 2015 post Robert Marshall Collier's Papers), so she would not have made the remaining entries in the Family Bible. A comparison of the writing in the initial entry under "Marriages" and the legal document signed by Robert Collier and presented in the May 3, 2015 post, Robert Collier, Son of Vines and Elizabeth Collier, indicate that the entries were made by Robert Collier.

Transcriptions follow each page.
